Travel

Last week I had the worst business trip I've ever taken. Normally a travel agency takes care of booking my flight (buying a plane ticket) and making my hotel reservation, but this time I decided to make the travel arrangements myself. Big mistake! First of all, the plane was overbooked (there were more passengers than seats available) so I was bumped to a later flight. When they gave me my new boarding pass (the ticket that allows you to enter the airplane), they didn't ask me if I'd prefer a window seat or an aisle seat (a seat next to the corridor) – and I was stuck in the middle. To top it off, it was a very bumpy flight (a flight with a lot of turbulence). I then missed my connecting flight and had a ten-hour layover (I had to wait ten hours for my next flight) in Chicago. Unfortunately, my checked luggage (the bags in the airplane's cargo compartment) had already gone through to my final destination, so all I had was my carry-on bag (the bag you take with you on the plane). I checked into a hotel near the airport just so I could take a nap. When I finally arrived in Los Angeles, it turns out that I had made a mistake with my hotel reservation, and instead of booking a room at a five-star hotel, I had booked three nights at a seedy hotel (a hotel that is not very safe or comfortable) in the red-light district. So I was stuck sleeping on an uncomfortable mattress in a dingy room (a dirty and dark room) while my colleagues enjoyed the luxury hotel. The trip home was uneventful, but when I arrived I discovered that the airline had lost my luggage. All in all it was a miserable experience.

Vocabulary

Last week I had the worst business trip I've ever taken.

business – negócios

had – tive

the worst – a pior

Normally a travel agency takes care of booking my flight (buying a plane ticket) and making my hotel reservation, but this time I decided to make the travel arrangements myself.

arrangements – organização

take care of – cuidar de flight – voo

this time – dessa vez

arrangements – organização

myself – eu mesmo

Big mistake! First of all, the plane was overbooked (there were more passengers than seats available) so I was bumped to a later flight.

mistake – erro

all – tudo

overbooked – lotado

available – disponível

there were – tinha/havia

later – mais tarde

When they gave me my new boarding pass (the ticket that allows you to enter the airplane), they didn't ask me if I'd prefer a window seat or an aisle seat (a seat next to the corridor) – and I was stuck in the middle. To top it off, it was a very bumpy flight (a flight with a lot of turbulence).

boarding pass – ticket de embarque

to allow – permitir

stuck – preso

to top it off – ainda por cima (acima de tudo)

bumpy – instável, turbulento

I then missed my connecting flight and had a ten-hour layover (I had to wait ten hours for my next flight) in Chicago.

missed – perdi

layover – escala

Unfortunately, my checked luggage (the bags in the airplane's cargo compartment) had already gone through to my final destination, so all I had was my carry-on bag (the bag you take with you on the plane).

unfortunately – infelizmente

checked luggage – bagagem despachada

gone through – ido

I checked into a hotel near the airport just so I could take a nap.

near – perto

take a nap – tirar um cochilo

When I finally arrived in Los Angeles, it turns out that I had made a mistake with my hotel reservation, and instead of booking a room at a five-star hotel, it turns out that – acontece que

to book – reservar

instead – ao invés

I had booked three nights at a seedy hotel (a hotel that is not very safe or comfortable) in the red-light district.

seedy – bagunçado (sujo, desorganizado)

red-light district – parte ruim da cidade

So I was stuck sleeping on an uncomfortable mattress in a dingy room (a dirty and dark room) while my colleagues enjoyed the luxury hotel.

stuck – preso

dingy – sujo

luxury (lâg jari)

mattress – colchão

The trip home was uneventful, but when I arrived I discovered that the airline had lost my luggage. All in all it was a miserable experience.

uneventful – normal, tranquilo

airline – linha aérea

all in all – de modo geral

Dialogue 1

Person A: Hi, are you waiting for the plane to New York too?

Person B: Yep, I am! But they said the plane will leave a bit later. Did you hear anything new?

Person A: I checked the screen. They say the plane will leave at 2:30 PM now.

Person B: Oh, that's not too bad. Hope the weather gets better soon.

Person A: Yeah, me too. I don't like flying when it's bumpy. Have you got your ticket yet?

Person B: Yes, I have it here. I printed it at home to save time.

Person A: Smart idea. I'll use that machine to check in. Did you put liquids in your bag?

Person B: Nope, I put all my liquids in a small bag inside my big bag. Don't want trouble at security.

Person A: Good plan. Security can be annoying. Is this your first time going to New York?

Person B: No, I've been there a couple of times for work. And you?

Person A: Actually, it's my first time. I'm excited to see the city.

Person B: You'll like it! Try to get a window seat for nice views during the flight.

Person A: I'll try. They're starting to let the important people on the plane. We should go in line soon.

Person B: Right. Let's go to the gate and get ready. Have a safe flight!

Person A: Thanks, you too! Have a great time in New York!

Dialogue 1

Mark: Excuse me, where can I find the departure gates?

Airport Staff: Just head straight down this corridor and take a left. You'll see the gates ahead.

Dialogue 2

Rachel: Do we need to go through security again for the connecting flight?

Daniel: No, since it's a domestic connection, you won't need to go through security again.

Dialogue 3

Sophie: Is there any turbulence expected during the flight?

Pilot: There might be some light turbulence, but nothing too severe.

Dialogue 4

Paul: How early should I arrive at the airport for an international flight?

Agent: It's recommended to be here at least three hours before your departure time.

Dialogue 5

Laura: Excuse me, can I get an aisle seat?

Flight Attendant: Of course, let me check if there's one available for you.

Dialogue 6

Alex: Is this a non-stop flight to Los Angeles?

Clerk: Yes, this flight goes directly to Los Angeles without any stops.

Dialogue 7:

Ben: Are we allowed to bring our own snacks on the plane?

Stewardess: Absolutely, feel free to bring your own snacks or purchase some on board.

Dialogue 8:

Emma: What's the maximum weight for carry-on luggage?

Gate Agent: The limit is 7 kilograms for carry-on items.

Dialogue 9:

William: Can I request a blanket for the long-haul flight?

Cabin Crew: Certainly, I'll bring one to your seat shortly.

Dialogue 10:

Olivia: How do I recline my seat?

Passenger Next to Her: There's a button on the armrest to recline it comfortably.

Dialogue 11:

Michael: Is there a place to charge my laptop in the waiting area?

Airport Staff: Yes, there are charging stations along the walls over there.

Dialogue 12:

Grace: Are there any restrictions on bringing liquids in our carry-on bags?

Security Officer: Yes, all liquids should be in containers of 100 milliliters or less and placed in a quart-sized clear bag.

Dialogue 13:

Sophia: Can I change my seat assignment?

Gate Agent: I can certainly check if there's another available seat for you.

Dialogue 14:

Daniel: What time are we scheduled to land?

Pilot: We're expected to land at approximately 5:45 PM local time.

Dialogue 15:

Liam: Is there a way to track the flight's progress on the screens?

Flight Attendant: Yes, you can find that information on the screen in front of you.
